

The Office of the Arizona Attorney General
In Cooperation with the Department of Economic Security,
Division of Children, Youth, and Families Presents

Responding to Drug Endangered Children (DEC):
Creating a multi-disciplinary response to children exposed to methamphetamine labs

July 31st, 2007
Viscount Suites Hotel
4855 E. Broadway
Tucson, Arizona

Coffee in the morning compliments of the Arizona Elks Association.

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 9:00-10:30 | Detective Jim Smith, MCSO/High Intensity Drug Traffic Area (H.I.D.T.A.)
Meth: What it is, how it's manufactured, inherent dangers, signs & symptoms of use |
| 10:30-10:45 | Break |
| 10:45-12:15 | Tim Ahumada, Phoenix Police Department, Retired - investigation strategies and techniques in the meth lab and other drug environments
Dana Markusen, Child Protective Services Supervisor: discuss the role CPS plays on the Emergency Response Team when children are found in meth lab environments and subsequent follow-up with children and families. |
| 12:15-1:30 | Lunch on your own |
| 1:30-2:30 | Dr. Kathy Coffman, St. Joseph's Hospital/Childhelp USA: overall danger and risks that children are exposed to when in contact with clandestine labs and dangerous drugs from a medical standpoint |
| 2:30-2:45 | Break |
| 2:45-4:00 | Assistant Attorney General assigned to DEC cases: address legal issues, evidentiary considerations, the multi disciplinary approach and response, parallel proceedings and environmental concerns |

Contact:
Sharon Wisniewski, Program Coordinator
Drug Endangered Children Program
Office of the Arizona Attorney General
602-542-8432
Sharon.Wisniewski@azag.gov

Law enforcement can receive
5.25 AZPOST Continuing
Training Hours for attending.
Signed forms will be available at 4:00 p.m.

Or:
Marty Miller, CPS, Administration for Children, Youth and Families, Training Officer
MartyMiller@azdes.gov
602-351-8524